As you can see from the Southern region excessing report for South Florida District, Moorehaven, West Palm, and Summerfield Key are the only active excessing being reported.

The first step in any excessing event is the notification to the APWU at the Regional Level. The USPS has provided no notification of any craft, Maintenance, MVS, PVS, Clerk, is under excessing at the WPB P&DC.

REASSIGNMENT – GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Article 12.4 establishes the following reassignment rules:

- Meetings with the union at the area/regional level are required no less than 90 days (six months if possible) in advance of any anticipated reassignments from an installation under Article 12. In such case, the union will be advised of the following:

1. The anticipated impact, by craft.
 2. The installations with available residual vacancies for the employees to be reassigned.
 3. When a new installation is involved, the new installation's anticipated complement by tour and craft.
- The above information must be updated periodically and provided to the union at the area/regional level.

PROPOSED EXCESSING

Field managers and/or supervisors should not discuss with bargaining unit employees proposed excessing outside the craft or installation until the area/regional parties have held their discussions. This should prevent employees from receiving erroneous information from management or the union, and control the appropriate flow of information.

It is my understanding that with the newest sign off on PSE conversions the West Palm Beach Clerk function 1 event was closed.

Respectfully,

Gary P Hamrick, President
